THE

Assessor's Report

OF THE

TOWN OF WAYLAND

OF THE

Valuation of the Real Estate

OF THE YEAR 1872.

WALTHAM:
PRESS OF JOSIAH HASTINGS.
1872.

At a meeting held March 4, 1872, under article sixth of the warrant relative to the valuation, the following vote was passed and recorded, viz.:

"That the Assessors be ordered to take the valuation the present year of all the Real Estate in town not exempted from taxation, at its full and fair cash value, without regard to the State and County Tax contingent upon such valuation, and that they cause to be printed at the completion of their work one copy for each voter in town."

A true copy of Record.

Attest: J. A. ROBY, Town Clerk.

Wayland, July 1, 1872.

From a survey of the town made in 1830, (by Wm. E. Grout), the total number of acres was calculated to be 9,900; length of roads, 38 1-2 miles, with an estimated average width of 3 rods, making 231 acres in roads.

Length of the river as a boundary line between Wayland and Sudbury, the north section commencing at the centre of the stream against "Bound Rock," at the angle made by the towns of Wayland, Sudbury, Concord and Lincoln, and following its course to a stone monument upon the westerly side of the river, in Sedge meadow, 1,325 rods; south section, from a stone monument near the residence of Marshall Eaton, on the north side of the river, to a point near Stone's Bridge, 232 rods. Total, 1,557 rods.

Between Framingham and Wayland, from near Stone's Bridge to near the mouth of Poole brook, 294 rods. Total length as boundary, 5 miles 251 rods.

Length of the river in the town not as boundary, 4 miles 231 rods. Total length, 10 miles 162 rods.

Comparative Valuation of Real Estate,

AND AVERAGE, TAXABLE AND OTHERWISE, FOR EACH DECADE, SINCE THE INCORPORATION OF THE TOWN, APRIL 10, 1780.

Contrary to the impression that has obtained, that the first general valuation was ordered by the Legislature in 1830, an examination of the Laws and the Assessors' records shows that a valuation was ordered and taken in the years 1781, 1791, 1801, 1811, 1821, 1831, 1840, 1850 and 1860. The request has been made in stating the valuation and average for each decade, to give the Assessors' names also.

VALUATION OF REAL ESTATE IN 1780.

It does not appear from the mutilated condition of the records, that a valuation was taken, and as the new constitution was adopted this year, and the laws under the same making provision for a valuation the next year, probably the taxes were assessed upon the old basis made before the division of the town.

The United States, the state of Massachusetts and the city of Boston pay a larger per capita tax, respectively, than any other nation, state or city on the globe. Official documents published and exchanged between the different governments show this. The following is given: United States, $16.09; England and Wales, $3.87; Massachusetts, $14.35; New York, $11.55; Ohio, $8.72; Boston, $36.10; city of New York, $29.54; Philadelphia, $13.73; Chicago, $21.65; London, $5.85; Paris varying from twenty to over thirty dollars in peace or war.

As the last Legislature fixed the basis for the State and County Tax (see Laws and Resolves of 1872, chap. 259) to continue until 1882, unless otherwise altered, the rate of apportionment of either of said taxes cannot be changed by the present valuation until the expiration of that time. The rate for Wayland, for her proportion of the State Tax, is fifty-five cents on every thousand dollars of the State Tax. The rate for the County Tax is $3.35 on every thousand dollars.
